Annals of Vascular Surgery 1988

A

Abdominal aorta
Coarctation of the abdominal aorta. Roques et al. (France) 1988; 2:138–44
Spinal cord ischemia following elective aortoiliac reconstruction. (Case report) Friedman and Moccio. (USA) 1988; 2:295–7

Abdominal aortic aneurysm
Aneurysm of the abdominal aorta in an eighteen-month-old child. (Case report) Defraigne et al. (Belgium) 1988; 2:193–5
Evaluation of factors influencing survival in ruptured aortic aneurysms. Vohra et al. (Scotland) 1988; 2:340–4
Inflammatory abdominal aortic aneurysms: a report of thirty-seven cases. Hill and Charlesworth. (United Kingdom) 1988; 2:352–7
Ruptured aortic aneurysms: postoperative complications and their management. Vohra et al. (Scotland) 1988; 2:114–9
Successful repair of a ruptured abdominal aortic aneurysm in a renal transplant recipient. (Case report) Schwartz et al. (USA) 1988; 2:189–92
Symptomatic abdominal aortic aneurysm misdiagnosed as nephroureterolithiasis. Borrero and Queral. (USA) 1988; 2:145–9
Thoracoabdominal retroperitoneal approach for repair of abdominal aortic aneurysm associated with horseshoe kidney. (Case report) Morin and Johnston. (Canada) 1988; 2:82–4

Adams-De Weese clip
Unfastening of an Adams-De Weese clip: an uncommon cause of recurrent pulmonary embolism after interruption of the inferior vena cava. Rudondy et al. (France) 1988; 2:235–6

Adventitial cysts
Adventitial cysts of the popliteal artery. (Case reports). Nicolau et al. (France) 1988; 2:196–8
Baker's cyst connected to popliteal artery cyst. (Case report) Schröe et al. (Belgium) 1988; 2:385–9

Anastomosis
Patency and intimal hyperplasia: the effect of aspirin on small arterial anastomosis. Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:50–6
Visceral revascularization by anastomosis between the left renal and Drummond's marginal artery. (Case reports). Testart et al. (France) 1988; 2:185–8

Aneurysm
Aortic aneurysm infection. (Letter). Reddy. (USA) 1988; 2:98
Atherosclerotic lesions of the aorta and renal arteries: results of simultaneous surgical treatment. Piquet et al. (France) 1988; 2:319–25
Consecutive infected aneurysm caused by salmonella. (Case reports). Barthel et al. (Belgium) 1988; 2:79–81
Coronary artery disease in aortic surgery. Orecchia et al. (USA) 1988; 2:28–36
Evaluation and preparation for surgical treatment of renal artery disease. Novick. (USA) 1988; 2:150–4
Evaluation of factors influencing survival in ruptured aortic aneurysms. Vohra et al. (Scotland) 1988; 2:340–4
Mycotic cervical carotid artery aneurysms: a case report and review of the literature. Jones and Frusha. (USA) 1988; 2:373–7
Normothermic rapid volume replacement in vascular catastrophes using the Infuser 37. (Satiani et al). (USA) 1988; 2:37–42
Persistent sciatic artery: case report, anatomy, and review of the literature. Noblet et al. (France) 1988; 2:390–6

Aneurysmal degeneration
Deterioration of in situ vein bypasses: anatomic study of 11 cases. Sassoust et al. (France) 1988; 2:345–8

Angiosarcoma
Sarcoma of the aorta: report of a case and review of the literature. Becquemin et al. (France) 1988; 2:225–30

Ankle-brachial pressure index
Vascular laboratory prediction of pedal pressure following femoropopliteal bypass. Phinney et al. (USA) 1988; 2:1–5

Aorta
Aortic aneurysm infection. (Letter). Reddy. (USA) 1988; 2:98
Atherosclerotic lesions of the aorta and renal arteries: results of simultaneous surgical treatment. Piquet et al. (France) 1988; 2:319–25
Coronary artery disease in aortic surgery. Orecchia et al. (USA) 1988; 2:28–36
Mesenteric shunting during thoracoabdominal aortic clamping to prevent disseminated intravascular coagulation in dogs. Cohen et al. (USA) 1988; 2:261–7
Mural thrombosis of the aorta. Gagliardi et al. (France) 1988; 2:201–4
Normothermic rapid volume replacement in vascular catastrophes using the Infuser 37. (Satiani et al). (USA) 1988; 2:37–42
Prospective randomized trial of polytetrafluoroethylene and dacron aortic prosthesis. I. Perioperative results. Lord et al. (Australia) 1988; 2:248–54
Sarcoma of the aorta: report of a case and review of the literature. Becquemin et al. (France) 1988; 2:225–30
Subintimal retrograde perfusion during repair of aortic dissection: a potential cause of disaster. (Case report) Robicsek et al. (USA) 1988; 2:298–302

Aortic occlusion
Mesenteric shunting during thoracoabdominal aortic clamping to prevent disseminated intravascular coagulation in dogs. Cohen et al. (USA) 1988; 2:261–7
Aortoiliac lesions
Mural thrombosis of the aorta. Gagliardi et al. (France) 1988; 2:201–4
Aortoiliac reconstruction
Spinal cord ischemia following elective aortoiliac reconstruction. (Case report) Friedman and Moccio. (USA) 1988; 2:295–7
Aortorenal arterial autografts
Aortorenal arterial autografts: the last two decades. Stoney and Olofsson. (USA) 1988; 2:169–73
Arterial flow
Atherosclerosis and disturbances in flow. Charlesworth and Gerrard. (United Kingdom) 1988; 2:57–62
Arteriography
The impact of completion arteriography on results and techniques of carotid surgery. Chino and Gwinn. (USA) 1988; 2:326–31
Arteriovenous fistula
Direct arteriovenous fistula of the external carotid artery: treatment with detachable balloon. Gelbert et al. (France) 1988; 2:358–61
Massive upper extremity edema following vascular access surgery. (Case reports). McCready et al. (USA) 1988; 2:75–8
Artery. see also specific artery
Adventitial cysts of the popliteal artery. (Case reports). Nicolau et al. (France) 1988; 2:196–8
Aortorenal arterial autografts: the last two decades. Stoney and Olofsson. (USA) 1988; 2:169–73
Arm ischemia secondary to giant cell arteritis. (Case report) Halpin et al. (Ireland, USA) 1988; 2:381–4
Arterial trauma in children: diagnosis and management. Evans et al. (USA) 1988; 2:268–70
Aseptic periprosthetic fluid collection: a late complication of dacron arterial bypass. Bellenot et al. (France) 1988; 2:220–4
Assessment of arterial disease using digital systolic pressure measurement. McCollum et al. (Ireland) 1988; 2:349–51
An atherosclerosis risk factor assessment program for patients with peripheral arterial occlusive disease. Johnston et al. (Canada) 1988; 2:101–7
Atraumatic control in calcified arteries. (Tech note). Semel et al. (USA) 1988; 2:73–4
Baker's cyst connected to popliteal artery cyst. (Case report) Schröe et al. (Belgium) 1988; 2:385–9
A century's worth of arterial sutures. Barker. (USA) 1988; 2:85–91
Coronary artery disease in aortic surgery. Orecchia et al. (USA) 1988; 2:28–36
Inflow failure of grafts originating in the axillary artery. (Case reports) Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:303–8
Mechanics of normal and diseased blood vessels. Dobrin. (USA) 1988; 2:282–94
Noninvasive assessment of lower extremity arterial disease. Hodgson and Sumner. (USA) 1988; 2:174–84
Patency and intimal hyperplasia: the effect of aspirin on small arterial anastomosis. Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:50–6
Persistent sciatic artery: case report, anatomy, and review of the literature. Noblet et al. (France) 1988; 2:390–6
The use of split-thickness skin as an autogenous arterial conduit. Calligaro et al. (USA) 1988; 2:255–60
Visceral revascularization by anastomosis between the left renal and Drummond's marginal artery. (Case reports). Testart et al. (France) 1988; 2:185–8
Aseptic seroma
Aseptic periprosthetic fluid collection: a late complication of dacron arterial bypass. Bellenot et al. (France) 1988; 2:220–4
Aspirin
Patency and intimal hyperplasia: the effect of aspirin on small arterial anastomosis. Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:50–6
Atherosclerosis
Atherosclerosis and disturbances in flow. Charlesworth and Gerrard. (United Kingdom) 1988; 2:57–62
An atherosclerosis risk factor assessment program for patients with peripheral arterial occlusive disease. Johnston et al. (Canada) 1988; 2:101–7
Atherosclerotic lesions of the aorta and renal arteries: results of simultaneous surgical treatment. Piquet et al. (France) 1988; 2:319–25
Evaluation and preparation for surgical treatment of renal artery disease. Novick. (USA) 1988; 2:150–4
Autogenous graft
The use of split-thickness skin as an autogenous arterial conduit. Calligaro et al. (USA) 1988; 2:255–60
Autologous arterial anastmoses
Patency and intimal hyperplasia: the effect of aspirin on small arterial anastomosis. Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:50–6
Axillary artery
Inflow failure of grafts originating in the axillary artery. (Case reports) Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:303–8
Axillofemoral grafts
Indications and role of axillofemoral bypass in high-risk patients. Cina et al. (Canada) 1988; 2:237–41
Inflow failure of grafts originating in the axillary artery. (Case reports) Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:303–8
Axillopopliteal grafts
Inflow failure of grafts originating in the axillary artery. (Case reports) Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:303–8

B

Baker's cyst
Baker's cyst connected to popliteal artery cyst. (Case report) Schröe et al. (Belgium) 1988; 2:385–9
Behçet's disease
Aneurysm of the abdominal aorta in an eighteen-month-old child. (Case report) Defraigne et al. (Belgium) 1988; 2:193–5
Bifurcation graft
Inflammatory abdominal aortic aneurysms: a report of thirty-seven cases. Hill and Charlesworth. (United Kingdom) 1988; 2:352–7
Bilateral subclavian arterial occlusion
Arm ischemia secondary to giant cell arteritis. (Case report) Halpin et al. (Ireland, USA) 1988; 2:381–4

Blood morphology
In vitro effects of Nd:YAG laser radiation on blood: a quantitative and morphologic analysis. Borrero et al. (USA) 1988; 2:69–72
Blood vessels
Mechanics of normal and diseased blood vessels. Dobrin. (USA) 1988; 2:282–94
Book reviews
Cerebral Blood Flow: Physiologic and Clinical Aspects. Wood. (USA) 1988; 2:99
Current Therapy In Vascular Surgery. Ernst and Stanley. (USA) 1988; 2:426
Brain
Effect of hemodilution on brain tissue during global ischemia. Rubin et al. (USA) 1988; 2:127–32
Brain infarcts
Natural history of nonoperated, significant carotid stenosis. Satiani et al. (USA) 1988; 2:271–8
Bypass. see also Grafts; Prosthesis
Arm ischemia secondary to giant cell arteritis. (Case report) Halpin et al. (Ireland, USA) 1988; 2:381–4
Aseptic periprosthetic fluid collection: a late complication of dacron arterial bypass. Bellenot et al. (France) 1988; 2:220–4
Atraumatic control in calcified arteries. (Tech. note). Semel et al. (USA) 1988; 2: 73–4, 1988; 2:73–4
Deterioration of in situ vein bypasses: anatomic study of 11 cases. Sassoust et al. (France) 1988; 2:345–8
Femorofemoral bypass through the perineum for infection complicating arterial revascularization of the lower limb. Branchereau et al. (France) 1988; 2:43–9
Indications and role of axillofemoral bypass in high-risk patients. Cina et al. (Canada) 1988; 2:237–41
Vascular laboratory prediction of pedal pressure following femoropopliteal bypass. Phinney et al. (USA) 1988; 2:1–5

C

Calcification
Atraumatic control in calcified arteries. (Tech. note). Semel et al. (USA) 1988; 2:73–4
Carotid artery
Blunt trauma to the internal carotid artery. Englund et al. (Australia) 1988; 2:362–6
Carotid plaque morphology: correlation of duplex sonography with histology. Bendick et al. (USA) 1988; 2:6–13
Direct arteriovenous fistula of the external carotid artery: treatment with detachable balloon. Gelbert et al. (France) 1988; 2:358–61
External carotid endarterectomy in the treatment of symptomatic patients with internal carotid artery occlusion. Nicolosi et al. (USA) 1988; 2:336–9
The impact of completion arteriography on results and techniques of carotid surgery. Chino and Gwinn. (USA) 1988; 2:326–31
Indium-111 platelet scintigraphy in carotid disease. Branchereau et al. (France) 1988; 2:215–9
Local fibrinolytic therapy in ischemic carotid pathology. Maiza et al. (France) 1988; 2:205–14
Monitoring of somatosensory evoked potentials in carotid surgery: results, usefulness and limitations of the method. DeVleeschauwer et al. (West Germany) 1988; 2:63–8
Mycotic cervical carotid artery aneurysms: a case report and review of the literature. Jones and Frusha. (USA) 1988; 2:373–7
Natural history of nonoperated, significant carotid stenosis. Satiani et al. (USA) 1988; 2:271–8
The relationship of early hypertension following carotid endarterectomy to intraoperative cerebral ischemia. Archie. (USA) 1988; 2:108–13
Therapy for isolated, low and high grade symptomatic carotid artery stenosis. Fritz and Levien. (South Africa) 1988; 2:367–72
Carotid completion arteriography
The impact of completion arteriography on results and techniques of carotid surgery. Chino and Gwinn. (USA) 1988; 2:326–31
Case reports
Adventitial cysts of the popliteal artery. Nicolau et al. (France) 1988; 2:196–8
Aneurysm of the abdominal aorta in an eighteen-month-old child. Defraigne et al. (Belgium) 1988; 2:193–5
Arm ischemia secondary to giant cell arteritis. Halpin et al. (Ireland, USA) 1988; 2:381–4
Baker's cyst connected to popliteal artery cyst. Schröe et al. (Belgium) 1988; 2:385–9
Inflow failure of grafts originating in the axillary artery. Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:303–8
Massive upper extremity edema following vascular access surgery. McCready et al. (USA) 1988; 2:75–8
Mycotic cervical carotid artery aneurysms: a case report and review of the literature. Jones and Frusha. (USA) 1988; 2:373–7
Persistent sciatic artery: case report, anatomy, and review of the literature. Noblet et al. (France) 1988; 2:390–6
Spinal cord ischemia following elective aortoiliac reconstruction. Friedman and Moccio. (USA) 1988; 2:295–7
Subintimal retrograde perfusion during repair of aortic dissection: a potential cause of disaster. Robicsek et al. (USA) 1988; 2:298–302
Successful repair of a ruptured abdominal aortic aneurysm in a renal transplant recipient. Schwartz et al. (USA) 1988; 2:189–92
Supraclavicular approach for the simultaneous treatment of dysphagia lusoria and thoracic outlet syndrome. Valentine et al. (USA) 1988; 2:378–80
Upper extremity limb salvage accomplished by in situ vein bypass graft. (Case report) Schwartz et al. (USA) 1988; 2:309–14
Visceral revascularization by anastomosis between the left renal and Drummond's marginal artery. Testart et al. (France) 1988; 2:185–8
Central nervous system ischemia
Effect of hemodilution on brain tissue during global ischemia. Rubin et al. (USA) 1988; 2:127–32
Clinical decision-making
Basic data related to clinical decision making in renovascular hypertension. Chiantella and Dean. (USA) 1988; 2:92–7
Basic data related to venous thromboembolism. Clagett. (USA) 1988; 2:402–5
Coarctation
Coarctation of the abdominal aorta. Roques et al. (France) 1988; 2:138–44

Compliance measurement
Effect of healing on compliance of porous Dacron grafts. Usui et al. (USA) 1988; 2:120–6
Computed tomography
Symptomatic abdominal aortic aneurysm misdiagnosed as nephroureterolithiasis. Borrero and Queral. (USA, 1988; 2:145–9
Congenital arterial anomalies
Persistent sciatic artery: case report, anatomy, and review of the literature. Noblet et al. (France) 1988; 2:390–6
Coronary artery
Coronary artery disease in aortic surgery. Orecchia et al. (USA) 1988; 2:28–36
Correspondence
Expanded PTFE prostheses. Colone. (USA) 1988; 2:315
Femorofemoral cross-perineal infrascrotal bypass. Johnson et al. (USA) 1988; 2:425

D

Dacron prostheses
Aseptic periprosthetic fluid collection: a late complication of dacron arterial bypass. Bellenot et al. (France) 1988; 2:220–4
Effect of healing on compliance of porous Dacron grafts. Usui et al. (USA) 1988; 2:120–6
Prospective randomized trial of polytetrafluoroethylene and dacron aortic prosthesis. I. Perioperative results. Lord et al. (Australia) 1988; 2:248–54
Deep venous thrombosis
Basic data related to venous thromboembolism. Clagett. (USA) 1988; 2:402–5
The diagnosis of acute deep venous thrombosis: Noninvasive and radioisotopic techniques. Comerota et al. (USA) 1988; 2:406–24
Detachable balloon
Direct arteriovenous fistula of the external carotid artery: treatment with detachable balloon. Gelbert et al. (France) 1988; 2:358–61
Diagnostic techniques
Assessment of arterial disease using digital systolic pressure measurement. McCollum et al. (Ireland) 1988; 2:349–51
The diagnosis of acute deep venous thrombosis: Noninvasive and radioisotopic techniques. Comerota et al. (USA) 1988; 2:406–24
Indium-111 platelet scintigraphy in carotid disease. Branchereau et al. (France) 1988; 2:215–9
Noninvasive assessment of lower extremity arterial disease. Hodgson and Sumner. (USA) 1988; 2:174–84
Symptomatic abdominal aortic aneurysm misdiagnosed as nephroureterolithiasis. Borrero and Queral. (USA) 1988; 2:145–9
Disseminated intravascular coagulation
Mesenteric shunting during thoracoabdominal aortic clamping to prevent disseminated intravascular coagulation in dogs. Cohen et al. (USA) 1988; 2:261–7
Doppler imaging
The diagnosis of acute deep venous thrombosis: Noninvasive and radioisotopic techniques. Comerota et al. (USA) 1988; 2:406–24
Duplex ultrasonography
Carotid plaque morphology: correlation of duplex sonography with histology. Bendick et al. (USA) 1988; 2:6–13
The diagnosis of acute deep venous thrombosis: Noninvasive and radioisotopic techniques. Comerota et al. (USA) 1988; 2:406–24
Noninvasive assessment of lower extremity arterial disease. Hodgson and Sumner. (USA) 1988; 2:174–84
Dysphagia lusoria
Supraclavicular approach for the simultaneous treatment of dysphagia lusoria and thoracic outlet syndrome. (Case report) Valentine et al. (USA) 1988; 2:378–80

E

Elastase
Activation of rabbit aortic elastase by nonaortic intraabdominal surgery. Cohen et al. (USA) 1988; 2:133–7
Embolism
Renal artery emboli: the role of surgical treatment. Bouttier et al. (France) 1988; 2:161–8
Unfastening of an Adams-De Weese clip: an uncommon cause of recurrent pulmonary embolism after interruption of the inferior vena cava. Rudondy et al. (France) 1988; 2:235–6
Endarterectomy
Carotid plaque morphology: correlation of duplex sonography with histology. Bendick et al. (USA) 1988; 2:6–13
External carotid endarterectomy in the treatment of symptomatic patients with internal carotid artery occlusion. Nicolosi et al. (USA) 1988; 2:336–9

Mesenteric shunting during thoracoabdominal aortic clamping to prevent disseminated intravascular coagulation in dogs. Cohen et al. (USA) 1988; 2:261–7
Patency and intimal hyperplasia: the effect of aspirin on small arterial anastomosis. Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:50–6

The use of split-thickness skin as an autogenous arterial conduit. Calligaro et al. (USA) 1988; 2:255–60

Extracranial cerebrovascular disease

External carotid endarterectomy in the treatment of symptomatic patients with internal carotid artery occlusion. Nicolosi et al. (USA) 1988; 2:336–9

F

Femoral vein

Greenfield filter insertions: predictability of technical difficulties. Smyk and Baker. (USA) 1988; 2:316–8

Femorofemoral bypass

Femorofemoral bypass through the perineum for infection complicating arterial revascularization of the lower limb. Branchereau et al. (France) 1988; 2:43–9

Femorofemoral cross-perineal infrascrotal bypass. (Letter) Johnson et al. (USA) 1988; 2:425

Femoropopliteal bypass

Vascular laboratory prediction of pedal pressure following femoropopliteal bypass. Phinney et al. (USA) 1988; 2:1–5

Fibrinolytic therapy

Local fibrinolytic therapy in ischemic carotid pathology. Maiza et al. (France) 1988; 2:205–14

Fibrous dysplasia

Evaluation and preparation for surgical treatment of renal artery disease. Novick. (USA) 1988; 2:150–4

Filter

Greenfield filter insertions: predictability of technical difficulties. Smyk and Baker. (USA) 1988; 2:316–8

Percutaneous transvenous caval interruption with the "LGM" filter: early results of a multicenter trial. Ricco et al. (France) 1988; 2:242–7

Fluid collection

Aseptic periprosthetic fluid collection: a late complication of dacron arterial bypass. Bellenot et al. (France) 1988; 2:220–4

G

Giant cell arteritis

Arm ischemia secondary to giant cell arteritis. (Case report) Halpin et al. (Ireland, USA) 1988; 2:381–4

Graft

Aortorenal arterial autografts: the last two decades. Stoney and Olofsson. (USA) 1988; 2:169–73

Effect of healing on compliance of porous Dacron grafts. Usui et al. (USA) 1988; 2:120–6

Expanded PTFE prostheses. (Letter) Colone. (USA) 1988; 2:315

Expanded PTFE prostheses as arterial substitutes in humans: late pathological findings in 73 excised grafts. Formichi et al. (Canada, France) 1988; 2:14–27

Indications and role of axillofemoral bypass in high-risk patients. Cina et al. (Canada) 1988; 2:237–41

Inflow failure of grafts originating in the axillary artery. (Case reports) Quiñones-Baldrich et al. (USA) 1988; 2:303–8

Prospective randomized trial of polytetrafluoroethylene and dacron aortic prosthesis. I. Perioperative results. Lord et al. (Australia) 1988; 2:248–54

Upper extremity limb salvage accomplished by in situ vein bypass graft. (Case report) Schwartz et al. (USA) 1988; 2:309–14

The use of split-thickness skin as an autogenous arterial conduit. Calligaro et al. (USA) 1988; 2:255–60

Greenfield filter

Greenfield filter insertions: predictability of technical difficulties. Smyk and Baker. (USA) 1988; 2:316–8

H

Healing

Effect of healing on compliance of porous Dacron grafts. Usui et al. (USA) 1988; 2:120–6

Hemodilution

Effect of hemodilution on brain tissue during global ischemia. Rubin et al. (USA) 1988; 2:127–32

Hemorrhage

Normothermic rapid volume replacement in vascular catastrophes using the Infuser 37. (Satiani et al). (USA) 1988; 2:37–42

Horseshoe kidney

Thoracoabdominal retroperitoneal approach for repair of abdominal aortic aneurysm associated with horseshoe kidney. (Case report) Morin and Johnston. (Canada) 1988; 2:82–4

Hypertension

Basic data related to clinical decision making in renovascular hypertension. Chiantella and Dean. (USA) 1988; 2:92–7

Evaluation and preparation for surgical treatment of renal artery disease. Novick. (USA) 1988; 2:150–4

The relationship of early hypertension following carotid endarterectomy to intraoperative cerebral ischemia. Archie. (USA) 1988; 2:108–13

Renal artery stenosis after renal transplantation. Lacombe. (France) 1988; 2:155–60

Hypoplasia

Coarctation of the abdominal aorta. Roques et al. (France) 1988; 2:138–44

I

Impedance plethysmography
